

Empowering Communication Trauma-Informed Practices for ASL Interpreters

Register here!

October 26, 2024

9 am to 5 pm

St. George DSDHH

1067 E. Tabernacle, Ste. 10 St. George, UT 84770

Free workshop & 1-hour lunch break

Presenters: Sego Lily Mental Health Counselors, Interpreters, & Sego Lily Representatives.

Learning Objectives

1. participants will be able to identify and explain the key ethical considerations and challenges therapists face when working with interpreters in clinical settings and what their responsibilities are in those settings.
2. interpreters will demonstrate proficiency in vocabulary, etiquette, and safety protocols specific to four distinct Mental Health settings
3. participants will be able to differentiate between various interpreter roles and articulate interpreters' primary responsibilities and obligations when working with Mental Health providers
4. interpreters will have a clear understanding of what behaviors would be considered ethical and appropriate vs behaviors to avoid in trauma-led assignments.

CEU Credits will be provided to those who participated. This workshop is for interpreters who work with Sego Lily and within the mental health space.

To request an accommodation, please contact info@segolily.org.

There are no refunds as this workshop is free.

Sego Lily does not and shall not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion (creed), gender, gender expression, age, national origin (ancestry), disability, marital status, sexual orientation, or military status, in any of its activities or operations.

UTRID is an Approved RID CMP Sponsor for continuing education activities. This Professional Studies program is offered for .6 CEUs at the Some Content Knowledge level

This project was supported by Grant No. 15JOVW-21-GG-00828-RUAL awarded by the Office on Violence Against Women, U.S. Department of Justice. The opinions, findings, conclusions, and recommendations expressed in this publication/program/exhibition are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the views of the U.S. Department of Justice.

